

AMAYA

rephrase: but a lot of people call me Natasha

Tell me about yourself: My name is Amaya Wakista but I am called Natasha (my middle name) because some people are confused when pronouncing Amaya. I am 11 years old and I am currently attending to St Ignatius Primary in Brisbane, Queensland. I truly love the opportunities it gives me. Those opportunities are like STEM competitions, debating, technologies and my all time favorite Speech and Drama. I am a part of the St Ignatius Drama team and I love being there. I get to sing solos, dance and act to my heart's desire. I also love singing. I have been displayed in many singing shows and competitions. I have also been a part of national teams and am proud of my success. For another, I am a big time bookworm. I love to read all the time. My favorite genre is probably detective. It helps me test my IQ by trying to solve puzzles before the detective in the story. Linking to that I also love watching Bright Side, a YouTube channel that tests your IQ. I really like netball and have been in many clubs, it is probably one of my favorite sports but I love soccer too. Another thing is I love technology. I am extremely good with handling tech. It used to bring me out of my comfort zone but now all I can say is that I am a tech whiz. When I grow up I either want to be an interior designer or teacher. I want to be an interior designer because I love designing and renovating and creating houses and buildings makes me feel calm. My other option is a teacher because I love explaining things and I love kids so much! Also I tutor kids who are younger than me, so I have quite a bit of experience.

Nice work! You met the 300 word criteria which is a good thing and your qualities and interests are truly fascinating. To improve this, keep an eye out on a few grammar misses just like the ones I have highlighted. There are inconsistencies that you must correct. Besides that, you can try to rephrase your trail of thought in a way that you are speaking in front of someone you really want to impress. Start off by describing yourself, your good qualities and things that make you unique from other individuals. And from there, you can work your way through mentioning your hobbies, achievements and ALWAYS end it with a good note.

Mark (46/50)