

Part 2:

My name is Kerry Chen and I currently go to Trinity Grammar Preparatory School. I have many attributes I could start off with but I will start with how introverted and shy I am. Whenever I am faced with speaking out loud to a large group or interacting with unfamiliar people I feel very nervous. This won't stop me from trying to make myself feel more confident. I was assigned to do a speech at a class ^{comma} but I tried my best and it turned out I made it into the top 9 in the grade and I will keep trying to talk to more people and do more public speaking.

My hobby is origami and building things because it shows me that if I persevere and put effort into something, I can turn something as simple as a piece of paper into a dragon. Origami has this unique ability and it also helps me be clean and neat because I need to be a good fold otherwise it won't turn out the result you want it to be. I enjoy debating because it combines an element of public speaking, writing and criticism in it and I need to improve those skills. Debating allows me to talk about issues and present my speech and write out my speech and find points in a limited amount of time. ^{Use transitional words such as. Furthermore, On the other hand, etc.}

When I grow up I want to be a lawyer because it means helping people who are in need of someone to help them in a legal case. ^{As} ~~As~~ ^{comma} a lawyer I can help people who are in need of help settling a legal case. That is the main reason ^{comma} but a bonus factor is that I also get to basically have lots of debating skills incorporated into it and it helps me improve those skills and practice them.

^{Your answer in the second question did not comply to the 300-word count requirements.}

My dream school is Sydney Grammar because it has a very good academic focus and can help me achieve my goal to get a lawyer. I am a good fit to Sydney Grammar because coming from a Christian school I have a faith in ^{God. Capitalise this.} ^{comma} ^{quote the motto: "Laus Deo" Capitalise the word God.} ^{god} already which matches their school motto ^{Laus deo, Praise be to god.} The school also has very high emphasis on sports as well as academics and in sport and I am a very good sport, being happy whether I lose, draw or win. I'm not the best ^{comma} but I know that I strive to improve in whatever sport I play and as all the other students, I will represent the school well.

I am able to learn very quickly because at my own privileged school, I am considered gifted because I learn material faster than others. Aiming for a very advanced and difficult job is crucial because I need to learn a lot about law and everything else that is necessary to life which means I will be valuable to the learning environment. The many co curriculums that Sydney ^{Grammar} grammar will offer will create big opportunities such as things that I have never done before like rowing or cadets or more advanced musical opportunities and teach me things that I haven't learnt yet.

This is why I think I am a good fit to Sydney Grammar.

Note: I must say this is an excellent answer to the two questions. For starters, you were able to introduce yourself in smooth and friendly tone. Then, you provided the qualities that you possess that would make you fit to your desired school. However, there are areas that you still need to polish. First, use transitional words, they make the flow of sentences flow smoothly. Secondly, do not write the word "God" in a lowercase. "God" has a capital letter because it is used like a person's name). When talking about several gods like in Greek mythology, a small (lowercase) letter starts the word. Last but not the least, adhere to the word count. Your 2nd essay did not reach it.
