You did a great job in providing wonderful ideas as to why you are fit for the school! It is actually good that you also added a few of your experiences as this aids in making your whole claim convincing. You just need to work on how you arrange your ideas especially when it comes to redundancy. If you re-read the piece again, it doesn't seem pleasing. To fix that, you gotta paraphrase what needs to paraphrase and simplify if you think it is too long.
