

Why do you want to be a Somerville girl?

Somerville is my dream private high school. I am a girl who would like to socialise with other girls my age, and at Somerville there will be ^{rephrase: so many different people*} so many people all different. Also I have met some of the teachers there and they are fabulous. They look out for every single student in need and make them strive for their personal best. Also the teachers are extremely kind and supportive. They are true teachers that will do anything for their students. I have seen that at Somerville there are so many opportunities like dramas and sports and privileged education. As a Somerville girl you are free to choose the co-curriculum activities you'll participate in and in addition there are a bucket full of activities to choose from, like water-polo or singing. Another reason I am keen on becoming a Somerville girl is the Somervillian spirit. All the girls who are currently attending, or used to go to Somerville are kind, generous and hardworking. Three of the most important skills in the world. If I were to be a Somerville girl, I would spend the vast majority of my time learning and striving for my physical best and the other time I would socialise and talk with my friends. The Somerville motto is 'Donec Rursus Impleat Orbem' which is Latin for 'Until It Should Fill The World Again'. When I grow up I either want to be an interior designer or a teacher. This links to Somerville's motto. I want my interior designs to fill the world with a new look and style. Either that or as I said, a teacher. As a teacher, I want to strive to be the best educator I can be. I want to teach my students and hope for them to be excellent in whatever they do. Hopefully my students will be famous astronauts or scientists who discover Earth's mysteries. I want to change the way of education. And to do that, my first step is to become a Somerville Girl.

Your goals are truly inspiring! I can see why you really want to go to Somerville. However, you mentioned quite a ton of aspects as to why YOU like to attend such institution, but the question is still hanging: 'WHY ARE YOU GOOD FIT FOR YOUR DREAM PRIVATE SCHOOL?'. Other than mentioning your interests in the school, also mention why you are WORTHY to be a student studying in such prestige school. You can try mentioning your good qualities, how much of a big difference will you contribute in Somerville? Make it seem like you are speaking to Somerville's principal and convince the person that you are a PERFECT match for the school.

Mark (45/50)