

Section 1:

#1: "Oh disasters of disasters! What happened here?" Shouted Liam with surprise, There were 4 children on a spaceship called the 'Stargazer', and when their parents went into their sleeping pods, they fell into deep sleep. Zoe flew into the room Liam was shouting in with her anti-gravitational hoverboard to see the parents snuggled up and eyes closely shut inside the sleeping pods.

a. Strengths:

- Engaging opening with dialogue
- Creative setting and technology (spaceship, anti-gravitational hoverboard)

b. Weaknesses: Main issue: Lack of descriptive detail Your writing could benefit from more vivid descriptions to set the scene. For example, you mention the 'Stargazer' but don't provide any details about its appearance or atmosphere. The same goes for the sleeping pods - what do they look like? How do they function?

c. Exemplar: "Oh, catastrophe of catastrophes! What's happened here?" Liam's voice echoed through the gleaming corridors of the Stargazer, his eyes wide with shock as he stared at the row of softly humming sleeping pods.

#2: "What! Who did that?" Screamed Mia sprinting into the room bumping into the walls as she ran, "We don't know?" Zoe replied with worry, "Let's just figure out how our parents are going to wake up first, so then they can help us fix the electricity." Replied Aidan bouncing around,

a. Strengths:

- Dialogue conveys urgency and tension
- Reveals characters' personalities through their reactions

b. Weaknesses: Main issue: Dialogue punctuation and attribution Your dialogue punctuation needs attention. Each piece of dialogue should end with a comma when followed by an attribution (e.g., "said Mia"), and the attribution should not be capitalised unless it's a name. Also, avoid using too many dialogue tags; sometimes actions can replace them.

c. Exemplar: "What! Who did that?" Mia screamed, stumbling into the room and colliding with the walls in her haste. Zoe wrung her hands. "We don't know." "Let's just figure out how to wake our parents first," Aidan suggested, bouncing on his toes. "Then they can help us fix the electricity."

#3: Aidan narrowed his eyes towards Zoe. He knew something was wrong about Zoe. Aidan scratched his chin as he started to think. Would Zoe be the imposter? Would Zoe crash the Stargazer eventually, and make us all suffer? The next thing he knew, was to tell Mia, and Liam about this.

a. Strengths:

- Builds suspense and introduces conflict
- Shows character's internal thoughts

b. Weaknesses: Main issue: Repetitive sentence structure and word choice Your writing here becomes repetitive, using "Aidan" and "Zoe" multiple times in quick succession. The sentences also follow a similar structure, which can make the pacing feel monotonous. Try varying your sentence structure and using pronouns to avoid repetition.

c. Exemplar: Aidan narrowed his eyes at Zoe, a nagging suspicion growing in his mind. As he absently scratched his chin, unsettling questions swirled through his thoughts. Could she be an imposter? Was she planning to sabotage the Stargazer, endangering them all? He knew he had to share his concerns with Mia and Liam.

Actionable task: Rewrite the opening paragraph, focusing on adding sensory details to bring the Stargazer to life. Describe the sights, sounds, and even smells of the spaceship to immerse your reader in the setting.

Overall score:40 /50

Section 2: Revision Guidelines

The Sleeping Ship "Oh disasters of disasters! What happened here?" ~~Shouted~~ [shouted] Liam with surprise, There were 4 children on a spaceship called the 'Stargazer', and when their parents went into their sleeping pods, they fell into deep sleep. Zoe flew into the room Liam was shouting in with her anti-gravitational hoverboard to see the parents snuggled up and eyes closely shut inside the sleeping pods. Liam rushed to control centre to wonder if Aidan would have any idea what happened with the parents. As they reached the control panel, Liam heard the panels flashing and the sirens buzzing. Endless buttons were changing different ~~colors~~ [colours] as the wires in the room started fizzing until the Stargazer became pitch black.

#1 "What! Who did that?" ~~Screamed~~ [screamed] Mia sprinting into the room bumping into the walls as she ran, "We don't know~~?~~ [,]" Zoe replied with worry, "Let's just figure out how our parents are going to wake up first, so then they can help us fix the electricity~~.~~ [,]" ~~Replied~~ [replied] Aidan bouncing around, Liam started to pace

around the room. He mumbled some words that Zoe heard and she started to laugh. She eventually got everyone's attention. "Why are you laughing when there is a serious situation going on!?" ~~Yelled~~ [yelled] Aidan from the other side of the room, "You really think that you can solve this problem easily [?]" snickered Zoe with sarcasm, "You're not a tech whiz at all! All you do is mutter random words and do nothing!" ~~Shouted~~ [shouted] Zoe with anger rising ~~through~~ [in] her eyes,

#2 Aidan narrowed his eyes towards Zoe. He knew something was wrong about Zoe. Aidan scratched his chin as he started to think. Would Zoe be the imposter? Would Zoe crash the Stargazer eventually, and make us all suffer? The next thing he knew, was to tell Mia, and Liam about this. As the four of them fluttered onto their sleeping pods, Aidan waited for everyone to leave so that he could talk to Liam. "Liam. Do you know how Zoe was laughing, the thing is that Zoe is acting very suspicious. I have a feeling that she is doing all of these problems." Aidan whispered, "Yeah, I've also noticed." ~~Replied~~ [replied] Liam, "I have a plan, and we are going to put it to action today." Aidan said with a hurry, Aidan ran off, into the room spying on Zoe. Then, Zoe started to creep out of her pod and out into the cabins.

#3 The next morning, Aidan and Liam, knew they had to get rid of Zoe. They agreed on launching Zoe out of the Stargazer. Liam ran towards Mia, and he pulled her toward him. "We are getting rid of Zoe. She is a traitor!" ~~Shouted~~ [shouted] Liam with frustration in his body, Mia nodded slowly, and she agreed. As Zoe was taking a nap. Liam, Mia, and Aidan all pushed the chair towards the back of the Stargazer. They soon kicked her out. They suddenly felt the lights flickering. After that, the lights went on, they heard the sleeping pods slowly open. One by one, the adults began to open their eyes. Their parents have woken! Everything was now back to normal. The parents took control of the Stargazer and now were heading back to Earth.