

#1 (First paragraph): a. Strengths:

- Clear thesis statement presenting the main argument
- Effective introduction of the topic's complexity

b. Weaknesses: Lack of specificity Your opening paragraph, while providing a good overview, lacks concrete examples to support your claims. For instance, you mention "many cities across the world" without naming any specific locations. This vagueness weakens the impact of your introduction.

c. Exemplar: "Cities like Bristol and São Paulo have begun to recognise graffiti's potential as a powerful mode of artistic expression, with dedicated areas for street artists to showcase their work legally."

#2 (Third paragraph): a. Strengths:

- Strong argument for the aesthetic value of graffiti
- Effective use of examples (Berlin and Melbourne)

b. Weaknesses: Underdeveloped ideas While you mention the transformation of urban spaces, you don't fully explore the impact this has on the community. The paragraph could benefit from a more in-depth discussion of how this aesthetic change affects daily life and social interactions in these areas.

c. Exemplar: "In Melbourne's Hosier Lane, the ever-changing graffiti has not only created a tourist hotspot but has also fostered a sense of community pride, with locals regularly gathering to admire new artworks and discuss their interpretations."

#3 (Sixth paragraph): a. Strengths:

- Addresses a common counterargument
- Provides evidence to support the claim

b. Weaknesses: Lack of balanced perspective Your paragraph effectively counters the argument about property values but fails to acknowledge potential drawbacks or limitations. This one-sided approach might weaken your overall argument by appearing to dismiss valid concerns.

c. Exemplar: "While well-crafted murals can boost an area's appeal, it's important to note that this effect may vary depending on the nature and quality of the artwork, as well as the preferences of the local community."

Actionable Task: Rewrite the first paragraph, incorporating specific examples of cities that have embraced graffiti. Focus on providing concrete details that illustrate how these cities have implemented graffiti-friendly policies and the resulting benefits.
