

#1: (First paragraph) a. Strengths:

- Creative use of time travel to introduce Mozart
- Engaging dialogue that captures children's curiosity

b. Weaknesses: Abrupt Scene Transitions Your writing jumps quickly between events without smooth transitions. For instance, you move from Mozart's arrival to the principal offering him a job without any explanation. This can confuse readers and disrupt the flow of your story.

c. Exemplar: "Mozart appeared on stage in a flash of light, bewildered by his surroundings. As the children's laughter subsided, the principal approached, intrigued by this mysterious visitor."

#2: (Second paragraph) a. Strengths:

- Interesting concept of Mozart interpreting soccer as a new musical instrument
- Showcases Mozart's adaptability and creativity

b. Weaknesses: Underdeveloped Character Reactions Your characters' reactions to Mozart's unusual behaviour lack depth. For example, when Mozart draws a "confusing poster that look like a toddler drawing", the children's response is not fully explored. This misses an opportunity to build tension or humour in the story.

c. Exemplar: "The children exchanged puzzled glances as Mozart's quill scratched across the paper, creating a bewildering array of lines and squiggles. Their confusion turned to fascination as they realised this strange man saw music in their beloved sport."

#3: (Third paragraph) a. Strengths:

- Exciting climax with the big match
- Creative use of musical metaphors in describing the game

b. Weaknesses: Rushed Ending Your conclusion feels hurried, with Mozart's departure happening too abruptly. The phrase "After lots of hard work, they won!" summarises what could be an exciting match in a single sentence, missing the opportunity to build suspense and excitement.

c. Exemplar: "As the final whistle blew, the scoreboard gleamed: 75 to 0. The crowd erupted in cheers, but Mozart's smile faded as he noticed a swirling vortex materialising before him. With a bittersweet smile, he turned to his team. 'Remember,' he said, 'in music and in soccer, harmony is key.' Then, with a final bow, he stepped into the portal, vanishing from sight."

Actionable Task: Rewrite the final paragraph, focusing on building suspense during the match. Describe key moments of teamwork and how Mozart's musical approach to soccer leads to their victory. Ensure to include more detailed descriptions of the players' actions and emotions during this climactic scene.
