

Pt 1 narrative

Have you ever wondered what it would be like to travel back in time? Well, that's what unordinary 3-year-old Lucas did. He had all his hair which was straight up, he was way taller than average height and had all his baby teeth in his box. The reason because of this was because his birthday was on the 29th of February. Lucas absolutely despised it he wished that it was any day but the 29th. He had a bad attitude wherever he went until the last day of summer. On the last day of summer, he went to the beach so he could enjoy himself a tiny bit but then he saw a small glass bottle in the sand he picked it up and there was a message that he could not understand. He read it as best as he could though then suddenly, he teleported into a hospital, and he saw a younger version of his parents and a doctor that explained that in 2 days she was going to give birth to a baby. Then he realised that he was in the past! He decided to try to get his birthdate to become the 28th of February. So, he dressed as a doctor and talked to his mother and said that they had made a mistake, and it was tomorrow. The next day Lucas' mum gave birth to baby Lucas and then he disappeared back into the present where he was exactly where he left himself.
