

Section 1:

#1: "As I opened the rescue centre gates, animals greeted me by wagging their tails to welcome me. I hear the noise of barking in the chorus of welcome."

Strengths:

- Creates an engaging opening that immediately draws readers into the scene
- Effectively uses sensory details to establish the setting

Weaknesses: Inconsistent Tense Usage → Your narrative shifts between past and present tense ("opened" vs "hear"), which disrupts the flow of your story.

Exemplar: "As I opened the rescue centre gates, animals greeted me by wagging their tails in welcome. I heard the chorus of barking that accompanied their greeting."

#2: "I started to bathe a filthy cat when it suddenly meowed thank you! I shivered with joy inside my body."

Strengths:

- Creates an emotional connection through the unexpected interaction
- Incorporates dialogue in a creative way

Weaknesses: Redundant Phrasing → The phrase "inside my body" is unnecessary as shivering inherently occurs within the body. The sentence structure could be more concise.

Exemplar: "As I bathed the filthy cat, it suddenly meowed 'thank you!' A shiver of joy ran through me."

#3: "I knew this one because it was 10 times bigger than a great white. Its name was Megalodon. This is famous for its extinction and it is still alive."

Strengths:

- Builds intrigue through size comparison
- Creates an element of mystery in the narrative

Weaknesses: Logical Coherence → Your sentences contain contradictory information about the Megalodon being both extinct and alive, which creates confusion for your readers.

Exemplar: "I recognised this creature - it was ten times larger than a great white shark. It was a Megalodon, a species thought to be extinct for millions of years."

Actionable Task: Rewrite your narrative focusing on maintaining consistent verb tenses throughout, paying particular attention to whether events are happening in the past or present.

Score: 38/50

Section 2:

#1 ~~As I opened the rescue centre gates, animals greeted me by wagging their tails to welcome me. I hear~~ [As I opened the rescue centre gates, animals greeted me by wagging their tails in welcome. I heard] the noise of barking in the chorus of welcome.

#2 ~~I started to bathe a filthy cat when it suddenly meowed thank you! I shivered with joy inside my body.~~ [As I bathed the filthy cat, it suddenly meowed 'thank you!' A shiver of joy ran through me.] Down underneath, there was a super cool lavatory. inside [Inside] were all types of fish that I hardly knew. There was an angelfish the size of a hand, a deep sea cutter shark and many more. When I went to check out the right side, a ginormous shark appeared in sight.

#3 ~~I knew this one because it was 10 times bigger than a great white. Its name was Megalodon. This is famous for its extinction and it is still alive.~~ [I recognised this creature - it was ten times larger than a great white shark. It was a Megalodon, a species thought to be extinct for millions of years.] Occasionally, it is [it was] the only one left. Suddenly ~~I realised this was~~ [I realised I was in] the real ocean. ~~I can tell it is~~ [I could tell by] the sea because there ~~are~~ [were] other fish and lots of coral. ~~this~~ [This] came to the end of the fantastic adventure and my shift. This made all the animals sad. I ~~gave a foretell hand~~ [waved goodbye] and promised to come back. I came out of the rescue centre happy and grateful.