

The Enchanted Forest

As I stepped into the enchanted forest I could feel its aroma of fire around me. A phoenix emerged from the shadows breathing fire everywhere, destroying everything in its path. The phoenix suddenly turned the colour of the shadows and morphed into a dragon. The dragon suddenly started spinning around me like a cat. Then I noticed it was the egg I picked up and cared for.

Suddenly, a griffin zoomed past my dragon and was about to kill me when I heard a large scream. When I opened my eyes I saw my dragon eating the griffin. Then there suddenly was an arrow pointing towards the ground.

My dragon suddenly started digging, there was an underground forest containing everything you could imagine! Then the mushroom started popping up and then I recognised one mushroom was TOAD from Mario. Then I saw Princess Peach's castle.

There were two mushroom guards guarding the castle as usual, me and my fellow pet broke in the old fashion way. We demolished every guard in one second. There was no one left in the castle except Princess Peach and Toad.

Princess Peach stood up in shock. She started crying and then fainted...
