

Week 1

Leo Wang Fu

2025 Year 6 Term 1 Reading & Writing

9/2/2025

Leonardo Peritus Rex was riding on his speedy brown horse through a dense forest, Trees were very tightly packed, and Leonardo struggled to traverse through them - any encounter of a low branch could potentially knock Leonardo out of his horse and potentially kick his bucket on the sharp, pointy sticks on the ground. Fortunately, the countless hours of practising dodging arrows on a horse paid off as Leonardo already traversed half the forest without wounds.

Dark shadows of doubt and fear clouded his mind because he was worried that he might not make it out of the forest alive if he continued riding on a horse galloping at maximum speed. There was no physical enemy in sight as of now, but there is a mental one that's constantly wrestling his determined mind. However, Leonardo did not let his angry voice take over his mind. He held firm against the stone of destiny of making it back to the castle, trying not to let his fingers sweat and slip away.

Suddenly, Leonardo heard a chainsaw sound coming from his right. He dashed across the elevated tree roots, jumping over them like hurdles. A heart full of justice urged him to find out what others in the forest are doing. Are they doing anything wrong? Sure enough, some wrongdoers are unnecessarily chopping trees down and creating a town for themselves.

"What are you doing?" Leonardo confronted with anger. "Why are you excessively chopping trees down?"

"I want to make a country for myself in this forest!" exclaimed the leader, James Samson.

"Where's your building permit?" Leonardo yelled.

"Are you even a qualified inspector?" another member, Isaac Peter said.

"Well, yes."

Leonardo showed James Samson his badge.

"Get out of here!" Leonardo shouted.

"Face us first!" James Samson replied. "Boys, attack!"

A pair of archers fired some stone-age arrows using their thick metallic crossbows.

Leonardo blocked all of the arrows with his enchanted wood and iron shield.

"Too chicken?" one of the archers said.

Leonardo threw his sword that pierced through the two archers' heads. Then, he used his axe to chop James and Isaac's heads.

The other settlers stood in horror with their mouths open in a circle shape. They turned around to run away.

Leonardo rode on his fast horse, grabbed his sword and axe from the corpses and charged at each soldier, slicing their heads off with the sword one by one.
