

Section 1:

#1 (First paragraph) Strengths:

- Effective use of physical description that creates a clear image of the narrator
- Good attention to specific timing details that ground the story

Weaknesses: Abrupt Opening → The opening relies heavily on an exclamation without context and jumps quickly between details. Your sentence "Aaahhhhhh!" I woke up at 8:37am." lacks a smooth introduction to engage readers.

Exemplar: "I jolted awake at 8:37 am on a bright summer morning, my heart racing with excitement for the day ahead."

#2 (Third paragraph) Strengths:

- Vivid sensory details that bring the magical world to life
- Strong use of specific timing to maintain story structure

Weaknesses: Run-on Sentences → Your sentences contain multiple ideas without proper punctuation or connections. For instance: "It was a complete new world glowing pink trees which led to infinite patches of intriguing mushrooms and the air humming like an orchestra singing in a performance."

Exemplar: "I had entered a completely new world. Glowing pink trees stretched endlessly before me, leading to vast patches of intriguing mushrooms, whilst the air hummed like an orchestra in full performance."

#3 (Final paragraph) Strengths:

- Clear conclusion that brings closure to the adventure
- Good use of specific timing details

Weaknesses: Underdeveloped Ending → Your ending feels rushed and doesn't fully explore the emotional impact of such a magical experience. The final line "but it wasn't" leaves readers wanting more resolution.

Exemplar: "The next morning, I rushed out at 6:31 am, my heart full of hope, only to find the portal had vanished. Though disappointed, I smiled, knowing I would forever treasure my extraordinary day in the enchanted forest."

Actionable Task: Rewrite your opening paragraph focusing on creating a smoother introduction that gradually builds excitement rather than starting with an abrupt exclamation. Include a hook that draws readers in more naturally.

Score: 40/50

A Day In The Enchanted Forest

By Youjun

~~"Aaahhhhhh!"~~ I woke up at 8:37am. In [I woke with a start at 8:37 am on] a bright summer morning on the 14th of ~~december~~ [December] 2021. I have black-ish brown hair that bends down which leads to dark brown, luminous eyes which concludes to a medium sized nose. I also have dark skin ~~color~~ which is able to let me see some of my veins on my hand. ~~today~~ [Today] I decided to explore the forbidden forest near my house. I quickly made toast with jam, butter and cheese and devoured it at the speed of a rocket. I got my bag and packed my phone, water bottles, a map, a picnic rug and lunch. Soon at 10:30~~a.m~~ [am,] I headed out of my house and started my adventure. #1

At around 10:58 ~~a.m~~ [am,] I arrived at the forest and explored it slowly and safely. "Woaaaaah! What's that?" I was suddenly met with a mysterious portal surrounded by a small patch of pink glowing trees. I was curious enough to get close and touch it, but while moving to get another angle from the left[,] I fell into the portal.

~~"OoooH MY God! What is this!"~~ ["Oh my God!" I gasped. "What is this?"] It was a complete new world glowing pink trees which led to infinite patches of intriguing mushrooms and the air humming like an orchestra singing in a performance. It was so much of a change that I thought it was a new world. At 1:07 ~~p.m~~ [pm,] I put down a picnic rug near a magical lake with beautiful swans swimming in it. For lunch[,] I ate a sandwich filled with egg bacon, onions, lettuce and bread spread with butter. ~~lunch~~ [Lunch] was flabbergasting not because of the sandwich I made, it was that I got to feed the swans pieces of my bread. It was amazing. #2

Soon I packed my stuff and explored a little further and found magical berries that you could eat. The berries would make you able to fly for a whopping minute. After I played around till it hit 3:30[,] I headed back the way I came and entered the portal and came back to the forest I was in. I walked the way back and had tomato pasta for dinner. I could not stop thinking about the adventure I had today. I thought it was an enchanted forest.

After dinner[,] I went to watch tv [TV] and at 8:57 ~~p.m~~ [pm,] I went to bed and the next day I went out early at 6:31 ~~a.m~~ [am] to see if the portal was there but it wasn't. #3
