

1. Interview questions

Imagine you are given a large sum of money what would you use it

I would use it for charity and the homeless. But my opinion changes whether the sum, like if I was given 50k I would put at least 1k into research like cancer and space to help our future generation. Though if I was given a larger sum of money I would use some of it on scholarships for people who are smart but can't afford school,

How would I handle conflict

I would handle conflict by addressing the reason for the conflict, de-escalate the situation and listen and give my view of the argument. If that is not working I would leave the argument and seek avoidance for a couple of days

2. Write a description on the magical carpet

As I gaze at the breathtaking carpet my mind starts propelling me to touch the silky smooth fluff. Every whisper was heard loud and clear in the so-called breathtaking cave. I looked in front of me and it was mesmerising. The shiny jewels meshed with the sparkling water made a kaleidoscope prancing on and on. When I touched the carpet it reminded me of a baby. The fluff was smooth and soft like a baby's skin. I closed my eyes and went into a realm as I glided my hands on the carpet. As soon as I opened my eyes I saw a different world. The carpet now looked like the baby from before but now older and stretching out its arms and legs. I took a step away ready to go home but something called me not to come back and see my magic. I turned my head around and saw the carpet start dancing. What? And then the now magical carpet started to glide in that air and gold imprinting started to form. I squinted my neon green eyes and saw pictures of a magical carpet with the same boy as before now wearing a fluorescent purple with a metallic gold hat. I thought is that Aladdin.

Aiden discovered a hidden door that pulsed with an eerie blue glow while exploring the forgotten corridors of the old mansion. Dust and cobwebs had long claimed their territory in this neglected part of the house. The door seemed to emanate a strange, almost hypnotic energy that captivated him immediately. Curiosity piqued, Aiden hesitated briefly before deciding to investigate further.

He reached out and touched the cool, ancient wood. The blue glow intensified, casting ghostly shadows that danced on the walls. Taking a deep breath, Aiden pushed the door open with a creak that echoed through the silence. He was met with a spiraling staircase descending into darkness, illuminated only by the ethereal blue light.

With each step down, the temperature dropped, and an eerie silence enveloped him. The atmosphere grew increasingly otherworldly, and the blue glow seemed to guide his way, flickering like a heartbeat. Aiden couldn't shake the feeling that he was on the brink of uncovering something monumental.

Finally, he reached the bottom, where the narrow passage widened into a cavernous chamber. The source of the glow stood in the center, an ancient artifact pulsating with energy. As Aiden approached, he realized this discovery would change everything he thought he knew about the mansion—and perhaps even his own destiny.
